Program Summary

Teach For America - Greater Nashville AmeriCorps members will teach for two years in schools that primarily serve students living in low-income communities in Greater Nashville. At the end of their first year, AmeriCorps members will increase the academic achievement of the 7,700 students they teach. In addition, AmeriCorps members will leverage 140 volunteers who will engage in supporting students in classrooms and schools. This program will center on the CNCS focus area of Education.
